

Wright Distributing Company honored with MillerCoors President's Award

BASTROP, TEXAS -- MillerCoors President Tom Long recently awarded local beer distributor Wright Distributing Company, Inc. with the "MillerCoors President's Award" in front of some 2,000 fellow distributors from across the country.

The President's Award was presented at the annual MillerCoors Distributor Convention held in Las Vegas March 25. The President's Award recognizes sales excellence by rewarding the top 34 performing distributors from across the eight MillerCoors sales regions with a special trip for two.

"These are the heroes of 2009," said Long. "These teams persevered, and won, through some of the toughest times and competed in some of the meanest markets in the country."

President's Award winners will be setting foot on the shores of Hawaii's best-kept secret: the island of Lanai, and enjoy a private buyout at the luxurious Four Seasons Resort Lanai, Lodge at Koele.

Below is the list of MillerCoors President's Award winners from the Southwest Region (which all happen to be from Texas this year):
